Report from Health Inspector Maria Schmitt:

Inspections are being done and so far, there are no conditional establishments.

Georgie and Tom's- spoke about having a court date, the company took over where Fabulous Foods was without getting a C.O. or license. The owner spoke to the Building Department on getting an application after receiving C.O. from the NJSEA. It should be resolved by the next Meeting.

M. Cinque asked about the business. Maria mentioned that Fabulous Foods sublet the area to them, but they need a new C.O. and food license to be there.

M. Cinque asked if the number of food trucks has been consistent with Covid-19.

Maria mentioned that it is about the same number of trucks, one of the companies with a few trucks has had less drivers.

OLD BUSINESS

Board Membership (1 Member, 1 Alternate)

M. Cinque asked if C/Surak had heard from anyone about interest.

C/Surak mentioned that she has not heard anything yet, but having the item on the Board of Health Agenda, people who look at the website will notice. She can also ask Mayor Vaccaro if something could be put on the website.

M. Cinque asked to mention the position to anyone that could be interested in being on the Board.

Dog Licenses issued: 156 Last year: 156

M. Cinque mentioned that the number is consistent with last year. Asked Secretary how many licenses are left. Secretary mentioned about 40 are left.

NEW BUSINESS None

PUBLIC HEARING No one wished to be heard.

Motion by L. Martinez, second by R. Wende to close Public Hearing.

ROLL CALL: Cinque, Martinez, Wende.
