Report from Health Inspector Maria Schmitt: (Peter Pena covering for Maria)

Peter mentioned that any questions the board has he will forward them to Maria.

C/Surak asked about the dog bite on the Report and what kind of dog bit the individual.

M. Cinque asked about Arigato being conditional

Peter mentioned that he does cover for maria and inspected Jumbo Garden last month.

M. Cinque asked about 5 Willow Street on the report.

Secretary mentioned that the caterer at that location was subletting to a packaged meal delivery company, and information was given to them if they needed anything from the Building Department and that building is also located in the Meadowlands District.

OLD BUSINESS

Rabies Clinic: Wed. Nov. 10, 7-8PM

M. Cinque mentioned that the rabies clinic will be at the Civic Center, and asked if it could be put on Nixle.

Secretary mentioned that they will ask the Police Department and will have the information put in the Gazette, and on Facebook and the Borough's website. The Flu Clinic was held and there was about 5 or 6 people that signed up. Some called the office to register.

M. Cinque asked about the Senior meetings.

Secretary mentioned that the seniors had their first meeting on September 15, and the health consultations are back in person.

M. Cinque asked about the health consultation program.

Secretary mentioned that likely anyone can go and get information so that they can follow up with the nurse the next month.

NEW BUSINESS

In person meetings

Board discussed having in person meetings. Confirmed that the November meeting will be held on Zoom unless something occurs and will discuss December's meeting based on how things are going regarding COVID-19.

M. Cinque asked for the list of dogs before the next meeting so that they can remind owners about the Rabies Clinic.
