Report from Health Inspector Maria Schmitt:

Maria mentioned about Vanguard, that there is not much they can do anymore. The County sent an inspector for 5 days to meet the Mayor or a Councilman there in the morning. Mentioned that the individual has been contacting the Mayor directly.

The food trucks are almost done, and retail inspections are restarting. Barakat had been conditional, but the problem was fixed when she went back. Azreel Lunch truck was conditional, and Maria needs to go back. Piazza di Pizza has a new owner, came in to file new application.

M. Cinque asked about the dog bite on the report. Maria mentioned that she was not sure, but the dog had been released from quarantine. Maria mentioned that there was another dog bite from Metro, the dog bit the owner on the lip. The dog is in quarantine and needs to be licensed after it is released.

OLD BUSINESS:

Dog Licenses – to date: 168

M. Cinque mentioned that the number of licensed sold is better than the same time last year.

NEW BUSINESS:

None
